1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3 below, that this stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 141 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Action: This pending federal lawsuit (Julia Detweiler, et al. v. City of Mt. Shasta and Jeremiah Capurro, et al., 2:24-cv-03100-WBS-SCR).

2.2 Challenging Party: A Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 1 information or items under this Order.

2 2.3 CONFIDENTIAL Information or Items: Information (regardless of how it is 3 generated, stored, or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal 4 Rules of Civil Procedure 26(c) and for which public disclosure is likely to result in particularized 5 harm, or is privileged under law, and/or violates privacy or official information interests 6 recognized by law, or is otherwise entitled to protection.

7 2.4 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well 8 as their support staff) and any self-represented (pro se) party or non-party.

9 2.5 Designating Party: A Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it 10 produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as CONFIDENTIAL.

11 2.6 Disclosure or Discovery Material: All items or information, regardless of the medium 12 or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, 13 testimony, transcripts, audio/video files, personnel files, policies/procedures, and other tangible 14 things) that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

15 2.7 Expert: A person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to 16 the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a 17 consultant in this action and that expert's support staff.

18 2.8 House Counsel: Attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House Counsel 19 does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

20 2.9 Non-Party: Any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal 21 entity not named as a Party to this action.

22 2.10 Outside Counsel of Record: Attorneys who are not employees of a party to this 23 action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this 24 action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of 25 the party.

26 2.11 Party: Any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 27 consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record, and their support staffs.

28 2.12 Producing Party: A Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery

1 material in this action.

2 2.13 Professional Vendors: Persons or entities that provide litigation support services 3 (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, transcribing, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, 4 and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and 5 subcontractors.

6 2.14 Protected Material: Any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 7 CONFIDENTIAL.

8 2.15. Receiving Party: A Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 9 Producing Party.

10 3. SCOPE

11 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material 12 but also: (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, 13 summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations or 14 presentations by Parties or Non-Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.
15 However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following 16 information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a 17 Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as 18 a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public 19 record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to 20 the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained 21 the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any 22 use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

23 4. DURATION

24 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this 25 Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing, until a court 26 order otherwise directs, or until particular Protected Material is admitted into evidence at trial.
27 Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of: (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this 28 action, with or without prejudice; or (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion

1 of all appeals, rehearings, remains, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for 2 filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

3 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

4 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection: Each Party or 5 Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to 6 limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The 7 Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, 8 or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, 9 documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 10 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

11 Mass, indiscriminate, or routine designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown 12 to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily 13 encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens 14 on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions. If it comes to a Designating Party's 15 attention that information or items that it designated for protection does not qualify for protection, 16 that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken 17 designation.

18 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations: Except as otherwise provided in this Order or as 19 otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure of Discovery Material that qualifies for protection 20 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

21 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

22 (a) For information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 23 excluding transcripts of deposition or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party 24 affix the legend CONFIDENTIAL to each page that contains Protected Material, or the file naming 25 convention if the Protected Material is an entirely electronic file. If only a portion or portions of 26 the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the 27 protected portions(s). Whenever possible, the "CONFIDENTIAL legend" should be placed in the 28 margins of the designated document. The "CONFIDENTIAL legend" should not obscure the 1 contents of the document or material.

2 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials containing Confidential 3 Information available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the 4 inspecting Party has indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the 5 inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be 6 deemed CONFIDENTIAL. After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied 7 and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions of documents 8 qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the 9 Producing Party must affix the CONFIDENTIAL legend to each page that contains Protected 10 Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the 11 Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portions(s).

12 (b) For testimony given in a deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: that the Designating 13 Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing or other proceeding, all 14 protected testimony.

15 (c) For information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other 16 tangible items: That the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container 17 or containers in which the information or items warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the 18 extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

19 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate: If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 20 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party's 21 right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a 22 designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated 23 in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

24 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

25 6.1 Timing of Challenges: Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 26 confidentiality at any reasonable time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's 27 confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary 28 economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its

1 right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after 2 the original designation is disclosed.

3 6.2 Meet and Confer: The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by 4 providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each 5 challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must 6 recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph 7 of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must 8 begin the process by conferring directly (in voice-to-voice dialogue; other forms of 9 communications are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, 10 the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was 11 improper and must give the Designating party and opportunity to review the designated material, 12 to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis 13 for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge 14 process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the 15 Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

16 6.3 Judicial Intervention: If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 17 intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under the 18 provisions of and in compliance with Eastern District Local Rules 230 and 251 (and Local Rules 19 141 and 141.1, if applicable). Alternatively, the Parties may agree to resolve a challenge through 20 any Informal Discovery Dispute process available by the Court. In any event, any such motion or 21 informal-resolution process must be filed or commenced within 21 days of the initial notice of 22 challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will not resolve 23 their dispute, whichever is later, unless the parties agree to a different deadline. Failure by the 24 Designating Party to make such a motion or commence the informal-resolution process within 21 25 days or 14 days, or other deadline agreed to by the parties, shall automatically waive the 26 confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the Challenging Party may 27 file a motion or commence the informal-resolution process challenging a confidentiality 28 designation at any time if there is good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation

1 of a deposition transcript or any portions thereof. Any motion brought or informal-resolution 2 process commenced pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a competent declaration 3 affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed by the 4 preceding paragraph.

5 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating 6 Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose 7 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to 8 sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation by failing to 9 file a motion to retain confidentiality or commence the informal-resolution process as described 10 above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which 11 it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the Court rules on the challenge.

12 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

13 7.1 Basic Principles: A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 14 produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 15 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to 16 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. Protected Material 17 disclosed in this case may not be used in separate proceedings or actions at this time or in the future 18 without first being obtained through proper discovery procedures or court order in those separate 19 proceedings or actions. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply 20 with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

21 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in 22 a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

23 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: Unless otherwise ordered by 24 the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any 25 information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

- 26 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees 27 of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the 28 information for this litigation;

1 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party 2 to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 3 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

4 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is 5 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and 6 Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

7 (d) the court and its personnel and court reporters, stenographers, and their support staff;

8 (e) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors (including 9 their support staff) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who 10 have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); 11 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably 12 necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” 13 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court.

14 Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected 15 Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone 16 except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

17 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other 18 person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

19 (h) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, mutually agreed 20 upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions.

21 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
22 LITIGATION

23 If a Party is served with a subpoena, public records act request, freedom of information act 24 request, or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or 25 items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

26 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy 27 of the subpoena or court order;

28 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the

1 other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this 2 Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

3 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 4 Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

5 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena 6 or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” 7 before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has 8 obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and 9 expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these 10 provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to 11 disobey a lawful directive from another court.

12 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS 13 LITIGATION

14 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this 15 action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by Non-Parties in 16 connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order.
17 Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking 18 additional protections.

19 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-20 Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the 21 Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

22 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or 23 all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

24 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order 25 in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of 26 the information requested; and 27 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

28 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14 days

1 of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-2 Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks 3 a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or 4 control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination 5 by the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense 6 of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

7 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

8 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected 9 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective 10 Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the 11 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected 12 Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the 13 terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and 14 Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

15
16 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED 17 MATERIAL

18 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently 19 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 20 Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision 21 is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that 22 provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 23 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a 24 communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, 25 the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the 26 court.

27 12. MISCELLANEOUS

28 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek 1 its modification by the court in the future.

2 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order 3 no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any 4 information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no 5 Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered 6 by this Protective Order.

7 12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or 8 a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the 9 public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 10 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 141. Protected Material may only be filed 11 under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at 12 issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 141, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing 13 that the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled 14 to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal 15 pursuant to Civil Local Rule 141 is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the 16 information in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 141 unless otherwise instructed by 17 the court.

18 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

19 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in Section 4, each 20 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material.
21 As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, 22 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether 23 the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written 24 certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party)
25 by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material 26 that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, 27 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the 28 Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy

1 of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, 2 correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant 3 and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival 4 copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set 5 forth in Section 4 (DURATION).

6 14. VIOLATION

7 Any violation of this Order may be punished by any and all appropriate measures including, 8 without limitation, contempt proceedings and/or monetary sanctions.

9 15. LOCAL RULE 141.1 STATEMENT

10 In accordance with the provisions of Local Rule 141.1, the parties state as follows:

11 (1) The information eligible for a protective order in this case is:

- 12 a. medical records;
- 13 b. employment records that would otherwise be privileged;
- 14 c. confidential information concerning the privacy of third parties to this 15 lawsuit; and
- 16 d. records related to any pending criminal or administrative investigation.

17 (2) A particularized need exists as to these categories as follows:

- 18 a. These records contain confidential and personal information;
- 19 b. These records contain information that may constitute official 20 information and could risk the safety and security of law enforcement officers if 21 publicly disseminated;
- 22 c. These records contain information of third parties to this lawsuit that are 23 confidential and personal in nature.

24 (3) A court order is needed to ensure the privacy and confidentiality of this 25 information is maintained and will be enforceable after the litigation has ended.

26 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

SEAN C. RIORDAN
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, _____, declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California in the case of Julia Detweiler v. City of Mt. Shasta and Jeremiah Capurro, et al., Case No. 2:24-cv-03100-WBS-SCR. I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order.

I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action.

I hereby appoint _____ [print or type full name] of _____ [print or type full address and telephone number] as my California agent for service of process in connection with this action or any proceedings related to enforcement of this Stipulated Protective Order.
